

Alamur hosts the Omani QS Gathering 2017 - CPD

Following the success of the Omani QS event in 2016 which was attended by over 130 QS professionals from the Sultanate, Alamur hosted the 2nd Omani QS Gathering for 2017 at Muscat Grand Mallheld in February.

The gathering, considered as one of the largest QS gathering in Oman, was run by Quantity Surveyors who have years of experience and are reputable experts in the field of Quantity Surveying.

With multifold goals, the gathering provided the delegates with great opportunity to:

- Exchange best practices (experience) in Quantity Surveying and develop deeper relationship with other industry experts.
- Tackle the challenges and difficulties that Omani QS's faces during these critical times and learn from industry experts on how to overcome and be successful in this field.
- Create and establish a support group for Omani QS professionals in Oman and provide them a rich opportunity to network with like-minded individuals.
- Inspire young Omani QS professionals to pursue their goals and encourage them about the beneficial and important role QS play in today's fast growing market and economy.
- Promote Quantity Surveying as a profession in Oman and introduce it as a wise career choice.
- Provide an opportunity to Omani Qs students and fresh graduates seeking for a job to meet Senior QS professionalsand get guidance and support.

The event, gathering around 100 attendees this year, was comprised of different activities and many of the participants were happy to have been given an opportunity to meet other professionals that they can exchange experiences and expertise with.
